COLLAPSE OF A BIG BUILDING.

A Rickety Two-Story Brick Structure in West 41st Street in Ruins.

EIGHBORS RUDELY AWAKENED

The Building Was Used as Junk Shop and Contained No Inmates.

PELL ON 30 POUNDS OF DYNAMITE

It is Claimed that Excavating on the Next Lot Undermined the Walls.

Residents of the thickly populated tenement-house district at Forty-first street and Ninth avenue were awakened tenement-house district at Forty-first street and Ninth avenue were awakened by a loud crash this morning just before 6 o'clock.

The commotion was caused by the collapse of a big rickety two-story brick structure at 60 West Forty-first street, which was occupied as a junk shop by John C. Pfluger, of 549 Tenth avenue.

Both the side and front walls of the busin fell upon a box containing thirty pounds of dynamite, which when hot hot floors had been stored were piled up in a mass of debris in the centre of the ruin.

The front of the house fell upon a box containing thirty pounds of dynamite, which did not explode.

Fortunately, the building contained no tenants, and no one was hurt. Mr. Pfigger stated this morning that the tuilding belonged to the estate of a Mrs. Wagner, and that the total damage would not probably seceed $2,000 or $2,000. Thomas Cogan, of Tarrytown, who is superintending the work of construction on the flat, said that he did not think the collapse was caused by undersigned the excavation did not come within four feet of the wall. The building willoft formerly adjoined it was a frame structure and could have given it no support.

The Superintendent of Buildings has been notified and he will make an investigation.

DOMINIE WOOD SUED.

The Paterson Parkhuret Must De fend Himself in Court. William T. Heftin, proprietor of a roof-garden in Paterson, N. J., to-day begun suit against Rev. Harvey Wood, paster of the Park Avenue Baptist Church, of that city, for slander.

that city, for siander.

Heffin alleged that Mr. Wood has been uttering statements from his pulpit of a slanderous nature. He says he is not after an award for damages, but wants his character vindicated.

The suit is the outcome of a bitter crusade which Dominie Wood has been making against the police and houses of bad repute in Paterson. Mr. Wood claims to have evidence in writing to show that there are forty-six such places in that city, and that the police has been receiving protection money.
